Proskauer Advises Groupe Premium on the Acquisition of Gemway Assets

November 26, 2026

PARIS, 26 November 2026 – Proskauer advised Groupe Premium on the signing of an agreement to acquire Gemway Assets, an asset management firm specialising in emerging markets.

The transaction follows the announced combination of Flornoy Ferri and Sanso Longchamp AM and reinforces Groupe Premium's ambition to build a leading European asset management business. Completion of these two transactions will bring the Group's assets under management to more than €30 billion.

Gemway Assets will enhance the asset management division with its expertise in emerging market equities and debt. Together, the three firms will ultimately have more than €10 billion in assets under management and approximately 110 employees. They will benefit from Groupe Premium's resources to accelerate their growth in France and internationally, while preserving their identities, investment management independence and entrepreneurial spirit.

Completion of the acquisition of Gemway Assets is expected in the first half of 2027, subject to approval from the French Financial Markets Authority (AMF) and the satisfaction of customary conditions.

A longstanding client of Proskauer's Paris team, Groupe Premium has been advised by the firm on several transactions, including its recent acquisition of Sanso Longchamp AM.

The Proskauer team advising Groupe Premium was led by partner Jeremy Scemama and included associates Aurélie Briquet and Lou Thauvin (Private Equity M&A).
