June 2010

District of Columbia Corporate/M&A & Private Equity

Band 3

The Firm: Proskauer Rose has been a growing force in the Washington, DC market since hiring the former head of the Wilson Sonsini team, Trevor Chaplick - a move that has increased its expertise and profile in the technology, real estate and finance sectors. The team primarily acts for private equity firms, investment funds and venture capitalists, as well as a number of late-stage private and midmarket public companies. Its expertise encompasses M&A, restructurings, public and private offerings and funds formation and investment work. Highlights include representing Intellon in its $244 million public-public merger with Atheros Communications, and acting for Morningside Management on the closing of six separate HUD loans totaling over $80 million.

Sources Say:"The lawyers pay great attention to detail and don't miss a thing. They are also accessible, work to meet deadlines, and represent good value for money considering the level of expertise they bring to the table."

Key Individuals: Trevor Chaplick has "made a big splash at the firm," report sources. He is hailed by clients as "one of the best business attorneys around – he is very skilled in putting deals together, and goes above and beyond to meet deadlines. We couldn't make it without his guidance and support."
