The Firm: Proskauer Rose’s six-strong immigration team is adept at handling corporate immigration policies, a whole range of compliance issues, labor law matters and national interest waivers. The team recently represented the executives and non-resident employees of HSBC throughout the USA in the areas of immigration and nationality law.

Sources Say: “No matter the size of the issue at hand, these attorneys have given us their undivided attention and treated us with the utmost respect and courtesy.”

Key Individuals: David Grunblatt is an established authority on I-9 and E-Verify programs, and has extensive experience in all types of business-related immigration matters. Grunblatt advises corporations, high net worth individuals and nonprofit organizations. Commentators enthuse: "He is constantly concerned with our company’s best interests and is an excellent strategist.” Avram Morell's experience includes counseling businesses on immigration issues, obtaining immigrant and non-immigrant visas and ensuring compliance for corporate clients. Observers say that “Morell has fabulous attention to detail, is hugely knowledgeable and really cares about his clients.”
