Healthcare: East Coast

Band 2

The Firm: This firm is a heavy hitter in the transactional healthcare arena, having in the last year been involved in a number of high-stakes M&A deals for hospitals and other clients. Its Chicago and New York teams are strong in the transactional, regulatory and litigation arenas, whereas its Washington, DC team is sought after for its regulatory expertise. The team recently advised Sumner Regional Health Systems in completing its sale to LifePoint Hospitals for $145 million.

Sources Say: "We use it for a wide range of healthcare-related matters. It is absolutely superb in every instance."

Key Individuals: New York-based Edward Kornreich is universally praised by commentators, who describe him as "excellent, competent and highly respected." Clients benefit from his broad-based practice, noting: "He is a thoughtful partner who gives us great insight."
