Labor & Employment: California – Chambers USA 2011

June 2011

California

Labor & Employment

Band 3

The Firm: This Los Angeles-based practice is highly regarded for its expertise in traditional labor management relations disputes and complex wage and hour class and collective actions. The group is also sought-after for its general employment counseling and maintains a diverse network of clients across a variety of industries, including entertainment, finance, telecom and transportation.

Sources Say: "An impressive group: it has good bench strength and the attorneys are responsive and always represent good value for money."

Key Individuals: Anthony Oncidi represents management and employer clients in wage and hour matters, employee discipline, litigation and preventive counseling, and trade secret protection. Sources single him out as "an intelligent and highly adept all-round lawyer."

National | Regional | Leading Lawyers

Related Professionals

- Anthony J. Oncidi
  Partner