

Intellectual Property: Massachusetts – Chambers USA 2011

June 2011

Massachusetts

Intellectual Property

Band 2

The Firm: This well-respected firm's Boston office is home to an IP practice of broad scope. The group is adept at representing clients in licensing matters, patent litigation, outsourcing, patent portfolio development and strategic counseling. Notable clients include Viacom and SeaChange International.

Key Individuals: Practice cochair Steven Bauer is vastly experienced in complex patent and other IP enforcement, litigation and dispute resolution. He successfully reversed a verdict on appeal for Transamerica in a patent infringement case. His cochair Joseph Capraro is recognized for "his unbelievably impressive strategic mind." He has strong expertise in prosecution, litigation and licensing issues. He advises Viacom's business units on their patent issues, focusing in particular on patent portfolio development and growth.

National | Regional | Leading Lawyers