Privacy & Data Protection – Chambers USA 2011

June 2011

National

Privacy & Data Protection

Band 2

The Firm: This well-established practice offers privacy advice to clients across a number of sectors including financial services, media, retail and healthcare. From its base in New York, the team handles a broad selection of privacy matters including cross-border data transfers, data breach response and legislation compliance. In addition to regulatory work, the team is notably active in high-profile privacy litigations.

Sources Say: “Proskauer Rose is extremely capable.”

Key Individuals: Practice head Kristen Mathews is lauded as "a remarkable regulatory lawyer." Her practice focuses on privacy issues relating to e-commerce, online advertising and technology. She recently represented the ABA in a case relating to the FTC's Red Flags Rule.

National | Regional | Leading Lawyers