Litigation: General Commercial: The Elite: New York – Chambers USA 2011

June 2011

New York

Litigation: General Commercial: The Elite

Band 4

The Firm: This firm is widely respected for its solid and varied litigation practice encompassing insurance, sports, entertainment, employment, antitrust, bankruptcy and securities disputes, among other areas. Highlights of the past year include representation of T-Mobile in a series of litigations relating to whether T-Mobile is subject to certain taxing ordinances. The group also represented the NHL in a lawsuit against the former beneficial owners of the Phoenix Coyotes.

Sources Say: "A strong and well-established firm."

Key Individuals: Bradley Ruskin is cochair of the firm's litigation practice group. He impresses sources with his trial experience and is lauded as "an excellent strategist with tremendous trial experience." He is adept at handling a broad range of disputes, including communications, sport, and telecom matters. Bruce Fader is described as "a brilliant strategic thinker and creative in his approach." He concentrates on commercial litigation and international arbitration.

National | Regional | Leading Lawyers

Related Professionals

- Bradley I. Ruskin
  Partner