Proskauer

Labor & Employment: California: – Chambers USA 2012

June 2012

California Labor & Employment

Band 3

The Firm: Proskauer Rose attracts high-profile clients from the entertainment, sporting, media and hospitality industries, to name a few. Its team wins particular praise as accomplished wage and hour class action and discrimination litigators. This combines with its readiness to represent individuals, and its knowledge of traditional labor law, to result in a highly regarded and broad practice.

Sources Say: "They are extremely well respected."

Key Individuals: Practice head Anthony Oncidi is noted for his experience advising employers on a full range of employment matters. He has been highly active acting as defense counsel for a number of major companies against a variety of discrimination claims. His work highlights include recently obtaining a successful verdict for Paramount Pictures.

Clients describe Kenneth Sulzer as "a very responsive lawyer who puts a high priority on every case." He recently arrived from Seyfarth and has particular expertise in wage and hour class actions.

National | Regional | Leading Lawyers

Related Professionals

- Anthony J. Oncidi
  Partner