Proskauer

Labor & Employment: New Jersey – Chambers USA 2012

June 2012

New Jersey Labor & Employment

Band 2

The Firm: The Newark office of this nationally recognized firm covers the whole spectrum of counseling, dispute resolution and immigration services. The team represents a host of major brands including JPMorgan Chase, T-Mobile USA and Bank of America. Its five-partner group has developed a strong market position in the state for its knowledge and expertise in dealing with complex employee disputes, particularly in the financial services sector. It recently won a significant victory for T-Mobile in an age discrimination, hostile work environment and retaliation claim.

Key Individuals: Marvin Goldstein is highly thought of and "does high-quality work." He advises organizations from a wide range of sectors in labor relations litigation and arbitration matters.

Lawrence Sandak has a healthy reputation as an experienced trial attorney and heads the firm's Newark office. He has built up an impressive practice representing legal and financial sector clients including JPMorgan Chase.

National | Regional | Leading Lawyers