As noted by The Legal 500, “Proskauer Rose LLP has an enviable market reputation and is, according to clients, ‘spearheading a tremendous effort in Brazil.’ Brazil is very much the core jurisdiction for the Latin America practice with the firm's substantial presence in Sao Paulo. On the ground it has a bilingual team capable of delivering UK and New York law advice. Colombia, Mexico and Peru are also key jurisdictions for the practice. The firm also has a comprehensive understanding of the legal, economic and cultural environments in the region.”

Proskauer’s Latin America Group advises a broad range of clients headquartered and doing business in the region. Services include mergers and acquisitions counseling for acquirers and targets; capital markets advice for issuers and underwriters in securities offerings, including initial public offerings and debt offerings; and syndicated lending, project finance, securitization and prepayment of exports transactions for financial institutions, borrowers and sponsors. The group also advises Latin American companies on Securities and Exchange Commission-reporting obligations and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance matters.
