Leisure & Hospitality – Chambers USA 2012

June 2012

National Leisure & Hospitality

Band 3

The Firm: This prominent firm's strength in corporate and transactional work boosts its abilities in the hospitality sector. For example, the team recently represented New York developer Tribeca Associates in its joint venture with Starwood Capital for the building of a new hotel and residences in Manhattan. The firm's established labor and employment practice is also a draw for clients, and commentators note that ERISA matters are an area of particular expertise.

Sources Say: "They were diligent and thoughtful and they made themselves available whenever we needed. They helped us from a personal as much from a legal perspective, and had a lot of good practical knowledge"

Key Individuals: Jeffrey Horwitz leads the lodging and gaming group. He regularly represents clients such as major financial institutions and sovereign wealth funds and advises on finance, operational and dispute matters

National | Regional | Leading Lawyers

Related Professionals

- Jeffrey A. Horwitz
  Partner