Proskauer

Labor & Employment: Massachusetts – Chambers USA 2013

May 2013

Massachusetts Labor & Employment

Band 3

The Firm: This team's practice is truly national in scope and continues to expand throughout the USA, and is highly skilled in litigation work. It also offers notable expertise in collective bargaining and employee benefits matters. Clients include Steward Health Care System and The Boston Globe. Recent work highlights include representing RBS Americas in a number of lawsuits concerning alleged violations of overtime payment agreements.

Key Individuals: Mark Batten is a seasoned litigator with impressive experience in a wide range of employment law disputes. He has a nationwide class and collective action practice, and leads the RBS work referred to above. Peers praise his ability to "get great results," and characterize him as "a consummate negotiator."

Scott Faust is an authority on the representation of unionized employers in traditional labor and employment matters. He has particular experience in representing industrial and manufacturing clients on a nationwide basis. He is highly praised for his practical approach, with one interviewee stating: "He knows how to convey issues and guide us through the more complex ones. He is very approachable and available, and understands our business."

National | Regional | Leading Lawyers

Related Professionals

- Mark W. Batten
  Partner