Insurance: Dispute Resolution: Policyholder

Band 2

The Firm: Sources identify this established policyholder group as a strong player in the most sophisticated and high-end coverage litigation across a range of industries. This was recently displayed by its representation of Union Carbide in $2 billion coverage litigation in New York against more than 30 insurance companies for asbestos-related claims. Clients particularly praise the firm for its deep technical expertise and commercial approach.

Sources Say: "They are knowledgeable, efficient and pragmatic."

Key Individuals: Peers recognize John Gross as a leading practitioner with deep expertise in acting for policyholders in the financial services industry.

"Fine lawyer" Seth Schafler is an expert in coverage litigation, particularly professional liability and fiduciary liability matters.
