Alex Starr is a partner in the Private Funds Group with a specific focus on the structuring and execution of traditional and complex secondary transactions, including traditional sales and purchases of fund interests as well as GP-Led transactions, including but not limited to, continuation funds, private tender offers and “stapled” secondary transactions.

Alex represents and advises a diverse group of private sponsors, asset managers and secondary platforms on a full range of both primary and secondary transactions, including traditional and synthetic secondaries acquisitions and dispositions, and GP-led liquidity solutions. He has extensive experience representing clients on all sides of these transactions, whether acting as sponsors, sellers and buyers alike.

In addition to his experience on secondaries transactions, Alex also has experience counseling a broad array of private clients with their investments in US and non-US private investment funds, as well as private equity funds in fund structuring, formation, fundraising and ongoing operations.
