

Contact

Ash Ilkhani

Partner

New York +1.212.969.3301

ailkhani@proskauer.com

Ash Ilkhani is a partner in the Private Funds Group. Ash has spent his career advising private fund sponsors and institutional investors globally, including in the U.S., Latin America and Middle East, on fund formations, joint ventures and institutional investment programs.

Ash's deep experience extends to counseling numerous domestic and international private investment firms in connection with structuring, formation, placement and ongoing operations of a broad range of private equity, real estate, infrastructure funds and hedge funds, as well as joint ventures. He also advises sponsors on carried interest arrangements and other compensation structures, as well as dispositions of interests in asset management firms, management team spin-outs and the establishment of new asset management firms.

Ash also advises a spectrum of global institutional investors with their investments in all classes of private funds and joint ventures.

Practices

Private Funds, Investment Management, Latin America, Hedge Funds

Industries

Asset Management, Private Capital, Private Equity

Education

St. John's University School of Law, J.D.

New York University, B.A.

Admissions & Qualifications

New York

Languages

English, Persian, Portuguese, Spanish