Brad Green is a partner and a member of the Registered Funds Group.

Brad counsels investment management clients in connection with the structuring, registration and operation of publicly-offered and privately-placed investment vehicles. His practice focuses on the representation of registered closed-end funds—both alternative products, such as funds of private equity, private credit and hedge funds, as well as traditional, exchange-listed funds.

Additionally, Brad serves as counsel to investment companies and their independent board members, as well as investment advisers and sponsors, and advises them on a broad range of transactional and ongoing regulatory and compliance matters arising under the federal securities laws. Brad also has represented investment management clients in connection with SEC examinations, investigations and enforcement proceedings, and private litigation.
