Carol Sullivan is a senior counsel in the firm's Corporate Department and a member of the Private Funds Group. Her practice focuses on representing institutional investors in connection with their U.S. and international private fund transactions. Her experience spans a broad range of fund strategies, including buyout, growth equity, venture capital, private credit and open-ended funds. Her clients include endowments, pension plans, insurance companies, funds of funds, sovereign wealth funds, asset managers and large family offices.

Carol advises clients on a wide range of alternative asset investments, including primary fund investments, syndicated and direct co-investments and secondary transactions. She negotiates customized investment arrangements for investors, including separately managed accounts, funds of one and anchor and seed investments. Carol also counsels investors on ongoing fund matters, including amendments, governance and conflicts of interest.
