

Contact

Caroline L. Guensberg

Associate

Washington, DC

+1.202.416.5873

cguensberg@proskauer.com

Caroline Guensberg earned her J.D. from George Washington University Law School, graduating with honors. While attending law school, Caroline was a notes editor of the Federal Circuit Bar Journal and had her note published in the journal. Caroline was also a member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Board and served as a writing fellow and a dean's fellow. In addition, Caroline worked as a legal intern for the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Federal Mine Safety Commission.

Prior to joining Proskauer, Caroline was a judicial clerk for the Connecticut Appellate Court. Caroline earned a B.A. in English Literature and Political Science from Wake Forest University.

Practices

Labor & Employment, Employment Litigation & Arbitration

Education

George Washington University Law School, J.D., 2018

Wake Forest University, B.A., 2014

Admissions & Qualifications

District of Columbia

New York