Charles Bishop is an associate in the Litigation Department and a member of the firm's Asset Management Litigation group. His practice is centered on complex commercial litigation, advising clients in asset management, technology and funds. Charles has a particular focus on shareholder and investor disputes, private equity disputes, and fraud and asset recovery, often involving significant cross-border matters.

Charles' recent and ongoing work includes a major cross-jurisdictional fraud case with ancillary injunctive relief and disclosure orders, a complex fund GP removal and its consequential cross-border litigation, and several earn-out disputes. He also advises on matters before the London Employment Tribunal.

Charles maintains an active pro bono practice, providing legal services to charities and NGOs on employment matters and human rights.

Charles is admitted as a solicitor in England & Wales. He is also a member of the Civil Litigation Section of the Law Society of England & Wales and the Financial Services Lawyers Association.
