Christina Kroll is an associate in the Litigation Department, where she focuses on complex commercial disputes. Christina represents clients through every stage of litigation, from pre-litigation resolution efforts to final judgment or alternative dispute resolution. She leverages her trial experience and strategic insight to manage cases effectively and provide counsel to clients facing a wide range of issues.

Christina is also experienced in conducting highly sensitive and confidential internal investigations. She takes the time to fully understand her clients' businesses to ensure she conducts thorough and thoughtful investigations.

Christina has drafted pleadings, motions and appellate briefs, managed discovery, prepared and defended witnesses for depositions, and argued dispositive motions. Most recently, Christina was part of several litigation teams that successfully defended against a Motion for Summary Judgment, delivered a winning brief in the California Court of Appeal, won numerous discovery motions, reached favorable settlements and secured a Temporary Restraining Order in N.D. Cal.

During law school, Christina served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Alex Kozinski of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.
