Dara Howard is an associate in the firm's Private Client Services Department. She concentrates her practice in estate and gift planning, probate and trust administration, family business succession planning, asset protection, charitable giving, and estate, gift, and generation-skipping taxation for high-net-worth individuals and families.

Dara works with clients to implement sophisticated estate planning techniques to achieve post-mortem tax savings all while navigating complicated family dynamics. In addition, Dara frequently assists clients in changing their domicile.

Prior to joining Proskauer, Dara was an associate for a Massachusetts law firm assisting high-net worth individuals and families in all aspects of estate planning and probate and trust administration.
