David Slotkin is a partner in Proskauer's Corporate Department and a member of the Mergers & Acquisitions and Real Asset Groups.

David's practice specializes in public and private transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, sales, divestitures, tender offers, joint ventures, spinoffs, debt and equity securities offerings, restructurings and corporate governance. He has extensive experience advising clients on complex transactions across all real assets classes, including digital infrastructure and hospitality. He works with both U.S. and international clients, ranging from newly formed public companies to established global brands, both benefiting from his deep expertise in complex transactions, strategic decision making, governance and compliance.

In addition to his transactional practice, David provides strategic counsel to management teams, boards of directors, audit committees and special committees on corporate governance matters. He advises public companies on all aspects of regulatory compliance, including federal securities laws and securities exchange listing requirements.

David is well-regarded in the REITs industry, where he has consistently earned a Band 1 ranking from Chambers USA. He is a frequent speaker and author on topics related to REITs, focusing on new legislation and SEC regulations.

Praised as “very thoughtful, technically outstanding, and among the best,” David is widely recognized as a leading attorney in his field. He has been ranked for decades by The Legal 500 and Chambers USA, with clients describing him as “a business-minded practical advisor who is a dealmaker at the same time as providing extremely valuable legal counsel.”
