Ellen Wheeler is a partner in Proskauer's Corporate Department and a member of the Mergers & Acquisitions Group.

Ellen's practice focuses on advising public and private investors, corporations and financial institutions on mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, control and minority equity investments and corporate governance. She also specializes in general corporate matters involving companies with respect to distressed M&A and special situations, including credit bids and foreclosures.

Additionally, Ellen's experience includes debt recapitalizations and restructurings, navigating in and out-of-court recapitalizations and exchange transactions. Her work often involves high-stake and large-scale investments across a broad range of industries including, healthcare, real assets, hospitality and consumer goods.

With substantial experience in all facets of private equity, M&A and special situations, Ellen brings a deep understanding and commercial approach to her practice and seamlessly leads her clients through their most complex transactions.

Ellen serves as an adjunct professor at New York University School of Law, where she teaches a course on special situations.

Recent Representative Matters:

- Represented the Statutory Unsecured Claimholders' Committee of Genesis Healthcare, Inc. in defeating the sale of assets and release of causes of action to an insider, resulting in the Court granting the Committee control over a reset auction, ultimately resulting in a third party sale that generated over $250 million more than the stalking horse bid.
