

Contact

D. Eric Remensperger

Partner

Los Angeles

+1.310.284.4590

eremensperger@proskauer.com

Eric Remensperger, a partner in Proskauer's Real Estate Department, represents traditional banks and private lending sources in structuring and originating acquisition and construction loans, mezzanine loans, as well as workouts and debt restructurings, and institutional investors, private equity funds, endowments, sovereign wealth funds, REIT's (both private and public, including non-traded REIT's) and family offices in connection with equity investments, including major asset and portfolio purchases and dispositions, with an emphasis on domestic and international joint ventures (representing both general and limited partners), sale-leasebacks, and structured and alternative financing arrangements.

Chambers USA recently ranked Eric a leading real estate lawyer and said that he is "valued by clients for his 'intelligence, diligence and good judgment'" and that he is "very good at leading a large team on complicated transactions."

Practices

Real Estate Finance, Real Estate Capital Markets, Capital Markets

Industries

Health Care, Private Equity, Private Equity Real Estate, Real Estate, Asset

Management

Education

Brooklyn Law School, J.D., 1984

cum laude

Notes & Comments Editor, Brooklyn Law Review

Manhattanville College, B.A., 1981

Admissions & Qualifications

New York

California

Memberships

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles, Board Member

California State Bar Association, Real Property Law Section, Chairman, Executive Committee

University of Southern California, Lusk Center for Real Estate, Board Member and Executive Committee Member

American College of Real Estate Lawyers, Fellow

Benjamin S. Crocker Symposium on Law and Business, Chair (2009, 2010 and 2013)

Awards & Recognition

Chambers USA: California: Real Estate 2013-2016

Southern California Super Lawyers 2009-2018

The Legal 500 United States: Real Estate 2012, 2016