

Contact

Hena M. Vora

Associate

Boston

+1.617.526.9803

hvora@proskauer.com

Hena Vora earned her J.D. from Emory University School of Law, where she received the Pro Bono Publico honor and a Transactional Law Certificate. In addition, she was a national competitor on the Moot Court Society and served as president of Emory's South Asian Law Students Association. While at Emory, she served as judicial intern for Judge Denny Chin at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, legal extern for General Electric and securities research assistant to Professor George Georgiev.

Prior to law school, Hena worked as a paralegal at Cravath, Swaine & Moore, LLP, focusing on residential mortgage-backed securities litigation. She also interned for the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office in Massachusetts.

Practices

Litigation, Securities Litigation, Private Funds, Asset Management Litigation

Education

Emory University School of Law, J.D., 2018

Pro Bono Publico

Boston University, B.S., 2013

Admissions & Qualifications

Massachusetts

Court Admissions

U.S. Court of Appeals, First Circuit

U.S. District Court, Massachusetts

Memberships

American Bar Association

Board of Directors, South Asian Bar Association of Greater Boston

South Asian Bar Association of New York

Languages

Gujarati, Hindi