

Contact

Jacob E. Wonn

Associate

New York +1.212.969.3419

jwonn@proskauer.com

Jacob Wonn is an associate in the Private Client Services Department.

Jacob earned his J.D. from Penn State Law, where he was the valedictorian of the J.D. class of 2019 and research editor of the Penn State Law Review. Before joining Proskauer, he spent over two years working for Sullivan & Cromwell LLP in New York as an associate in the firm's Estates & Personal Group.

Prior to law school, Jacob worked in mental health and social services, with a particular focus on issues related to public benefits and services for individuals with disabilities.

Practices

Private Client Services

Education

Penn State Law, J.D.
summa cum laude,
Research Editor, Penn State Law Review
Cornell University College of Arts and Sciences, B.A.

Admissions & Qualifications

New York

Court Admissions

U.S. District Court, New York, Eastern District

Memberships

New York State Bar Association

New York City Bar Association Committee on Estate and Gift Taxation

Government Service

Legal Intern, Healthcare Section and Antitrust Section, Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General, 2017-2018