Joey Polonsky is a partner in Proskauer's Global Finance Group and a member of the Firm's Leveraged Finance team.

Based in Charlotte, North Carolina, Joey represents financial institutions on company acquisitions, refinancing debt and restructuring balance sheets.

Joey advises a wide range of financial institutions, including banks, direct lenders and other credit providers, on delivering the capital companies need to pursue strategic goals such as acquisitions, debt refinancing, shareholder distributions and balance sheet restructurings.

He works closely with public companies, large-cap corporates, sponsor-backed businesses and privately held enterprises to structure complex financing arrangements and capital restructurings. His experience spans a broad spectrum of debt products, including first and second lien loans, asset-backed facilities, unitranche structures, FILO tranches, unsecured debt and debtor-in-possession (DIP) financings.
