Johan Bernoville is an associate in the Labor & Employment Law Department.

He assists French companies in all areas of labor law. He regularly represents major French companies before competent authorities and jurisdictions mainly in the realm of individual litigations. Johan assists companies in the implementation of complex projects and also intervenes in mass litigations in a context of economic redundancies.

Prior to joining Proskauer, Johan served as in-house counsel in the public affairs department of Euro Disney SCA, in the legal department of Aperam (ex. Arcelor Mittal), and in the human resources department of Eurovia France, a subsidiary of Vinci. Johan also worked in another law firm, dedicating his practice to labor law and professional training law.

Johan has a Master 2 in labor law from the University of Montpellier I and a Master 1 in business law from the University of Aix-Marseille III.
