Jon Gill is a partner in Proskauer's Mergers & Acquisitions Group. Jon's practice focuses on advising investment funds that make equity and debt investments in private and public companies, particularly in distressed and special situations. He provides comprehensive corporate, securities, and bankruptcy law advice throughout the lifecycle of transactions, from pre-commitment and execution to exit.

Jon also advises public and private clients on a wide range of corporate securities matters, including with respect to trading issues, tender offers, rights offerings, confidentiality issues and shareholder and inter-creditor agreements.

Jon's practice includes representing creditors with respect to enforcement issues, in and out-of-court reorganizations, plan fundings, §363 transactions and DIP financings.

Since 2017, Jon has served as an adjunct professor at New York University School of Law, where he teaches a course on special situations.
