Jorge Gonzalez is an associate in the Restructuring Group at Proskauer, where he advises on complex restructuring matters, including Chapter 11 reorganizations, financings, acquisitions, and related disputes. He brings a global perspective to his practice, drawing on experience across Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

Jorge is admitted to practice in New York and Costa Rica, and is fluent in English and Spanish, allowing him to support clients seamlessly across jurisdictions. He is a member of New York City Bar Association's Bankruptcy & Corporate Reorganization Committee and previously served on the board of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration's under-40 group.

Jorge holds a Master of Laws from Harvard Law School and additional law degrees from the University of Costa Rica. Prior to joining Proskauer, he practiced at a leading Latin American law firm and served in the chambers of the Honorable Nathan A. Cook of the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Jorge has been featured on panels on insolvency and dispute resolution, and his articles have been published in industry-leading outlets such as The Journal of Corporate Renewal, El Financiero, and The European Journal of Commercial Contract Law.
