Justin Cohen is an associate in the Litigation Department. His practice focuses on complex civil litigation, including antitrust and securities litigation. He has represented clients in a variety of industries in both federal and state courts across the United States, and in investigations by the SEC and DOJ.

Justin was part of the trial team that secured a landmark victory for Sanderson Farms in a blockbuster broiler chicken antitrust conspiracy case, defeating $7 billion in damages claims. Following a six-week trial in the Northern District of Illinois after 13 of 14 defendants settled, the jury returned a complete defense verdict. The team received The American Lawyer's "Litigators of the Week" and Law360's "Legal Lions" recognition as well as Benchmark Litigation's "Impact Case" award.

Justin earned his J.D. from Columbia Law School, where he was an Articles Editor for the Columbia Science and Technology Law Review. While at Columbia, he worked at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York. Prior to law school, he worked as an analyst for the U.S. Department of Defense.
