Leith Moghli is a partner in the Private Funds Group based in London. He advises global and European fund sponsors and financial institutions on the formation of their investment vehicles across a broad range of strategies and asset classes, with a particular emphasis on private equity, venture, infrastructure, natural resources, energy, secondary and debt funds. He also counsels fund managers on carried interest, co-investment and other incentive arrangements, including leveraged co-investments and separate account arrangements.

Leith has considerable experience guiding new sponsors on the creation of first time funds and spin outs and providing advice on a broad range of complex international private equity transactions, including cornerstone fund investments, joint ventures, secondary portfolio acquisitions, synthetic secondaries, management company restructurings, and other general corporate matters.
