Louis Sorgi is a partner in the Corporate Department and a member of the Private Funds Group. He specializes in representing private funds and private fund sponsors across all aspects of their operations, including fund formation, internal structuring, compliance and ongoing management. With extensive experience across a diverse range of asset classes – including venture capital, growth equity, real assets, buyout, secondaries and fund-of-funds – Lou is particularly known for his work with leading life sciences venture capital firms.

Lou also guides fund sponsors through all stages of the secondary transaction process, managing acquisitions and sales of partnership interests, tender offers, continuation funds, fund restructurings and other GP-led transactions. In addition, he advises a broad spectrum of institutional investors on traditional LP investments in U.S. private investment funds and co-investment transactions.

Prior to joining Proskauer, Lou practiced at Seward & Kissel LLP in New York, where he focused on investment management, representing private funds, fund sponsors and investment advisers on a wide range of issues, including fund formations, investor admittance and ongoing regulatory compliance.
