Margaret Dale is a versatile first-chair litigator and handles complex business disputes for clients across a wide variety of industries.

While her practice covers the spectrum of commercial disputes, Margaret regularly handles privacy and data security matters, including regulatory investigations and class action lawsuits stemming from data breaches. She also focuses on intellectual property, where she represents individual artists and arts-related organizations and museums. Margaret's practice also includes matters involving securities, corporate governance, asset management, bankruptcy and insolvency.

Margaret maintains an active pro bono practice focusing on issues relating to women, children and veterans. She also serves as Chair of the Board of Directors of the Center for Family Representation, and as a member of the Board of Directors of VLA (Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts).

At Proskauer, Margaret also serves as the Vice-Chair for the Litigation Department, and heads the Litigation Department's Data Privacy and Cybersecurity Practice Group.

In addition, Margaret is the lead editor of Proskauer's blog on business litigation, Minding Your Business.

Margaret is an author of the chapter titled "Admissibility Issues in Commercial Cases" in the treatise Commercial Litigation in New York State Courts (Haig, ed). Margaret also authored the chapter, Data Breach Litigation in Proskauer on Privacy.
