

Contact

Margaret F. Swetman

Special Employment Law Counsel

New Orleans +1.504.310.2025

mswetman@proskauer.com

Margaret Swetman is a special Employment Law counsel in the Labor & Employment Law Department. With nearly two decades of experience, Margaret's practice involves litigating claims of unlawful discrimination, harassment, retaliation and whistleblowing, violations of restrictive covenant agreements, and other employment-related disputes in federal and state courts and in arbitration tribunals. She has represented clients in regulatory and administrative proceedings before FINRA, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission and the Louisiana Workforce Commission. Margaret also has significant experience representing broker-dealers and associated persons in disputes in federal and state court and before FINRA. Margaret also counsels clients on a wide array of workplace issues, and she assists in conducting workplace investigations related to issues of discrimination, employment practices and other misconduct.

Margaret is an Assistant Examiner for the Louisiana Supreme Court Committee on Bar Admissions.

Practices

Workplace Investigations, Labor & Employment, Employment Litigation, Discrimination, Harassment & Title VII, Whistleblowing & Retaliation, Policies, Handbooks & Training

Education

Georgetown University, B.S.

Tulane University Law School, J.D.

Admissions & Qualifications

Louisiana

Court Admissions

U.S. District Court, Louisiana, Eastern District

U.S. District Court, Louisiana, Middle District

U.S. District Court, Louisiana, Western District

U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit

Memberships

Federal Bar Association

Louisiana State Bar Association

Awards & Recognition

Louisiana Super Lawyers: Rising Star, 2014

Martindale-Hubble AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating since 2017