

Contact

Nick Rose

Special Funds Counsel

London

+44.20.7280.2046

nrose@proskauer.com

Nick Rose advises fund managers on a range of issues, including the establishment and structuring of private investment funds, internal governance, carried interest arrangements and ongoing fund maintenance. Nick also advises various institutional investors on primary investments, traditional and non-traditional secondary transactions, preferred equity, GP-led and continuation vehicle transactions.

Nick's representative clients include Aberdeen Standard Investments, Gilde Buy Out Partners, Litorina, Northleaf Capital Partners, Priveq and Segulah.

Nick's experience also includes spending four months on secondment in Luxembourg with the European Investment Fund.

Matters

His recent work includes:

- Segulah Medical Acceleration AB, a medical technology venture fund (SEK 1.2 billion).
- Priveq Investment VI, a Nordic growth capital fund (SEK 2.5 billion).

- Gilde Buy-Out Fund VI, a mid-market buyout fund making investments in the Benelux and DACH regions (€1.35 billion).
- Litorina V, a Nordic buyout fund (SEK 3 billion).
- Segulah V, a Nordic buyout fund (SEK 2.4 billion), and the subsequent restructuring of the fund to a Swedish onshore structure.
- The National Bank of Greece on the spin out of its private equity business, NBGI Private Equity.
- Aberdeen Standard Investments, Access Capital Partners, Ardian, BP Investment Management, a Canadian pension plan, the European Investment Fund, Lexington Partners, Northleaf Capital Partners, PineBridge Investments, Strategic Partners, and Värde Partners, on traditional and non-traditional secondary transactions and primary investments.

Practices

Investment Management, Corporate/Transactional, Private Funds

Education

The College of Law, London, LL.B.

University of Warwick, B.Sc.

Admissions & Qualifications

Admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales