Nicollette Moser is an associate in the Litigation Department and a member of the Antitrust Group and the Price Gouging team.

Nicollette represents clients on matters related to mergers and acquisitions, allegations related to unlawful conspiracy and anticompetitive agreements, price fixing claims and price gouging class actions. She also counsels clients on state Attorneys General and Department of Justice investigations regarding price gouging allegations.

Nicollette is a regular contributor to Proskauer's commercial litigation blog, Minding Your Business.

Nicollette earned her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center, where she was as an editor of the Georgetown Journal of Law & Public Policy. While at Georgetown, she served as an intern to the Hon. Craig Iscoe of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. In addition, Nicollette was a law clerk with the House Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on Regulatory Reform, Commercial and Antitrust Law.
