Proskauer

Contact

Pamela A. Onufer

Special Pension Investment Counsel

National Office +1.973.274.3260

ponufer@proskauer.com

Pamela is a special pension investment counsel who focuses her practice on ERISA, with special emphasis on ERISA's fiduciary and prohibited transaction rules. She has extensive experience assisting both single-employer and multiemployer benefit plan clients in reviewing and negotiating various investment-related agreements and documents, including documentation related to separate accounts, collective trust funds, private equity funds, hedge funds, fund-of-funds, custody agreements, trust agreements, portfolio transition management agreements, investment policies and guidelines and ISDAs.

Practices

Compensation & Benefits, Pension Investing

Education

St. John's University School of Law, J.D.

summa cum laude

Executive Notes Editor, St. John's Law Review, 1996-1997

State University of New York at Binghamton, B.A.

cum laude

Admissions & Qualifications

Admitted only in New York

Clerkships

U.S. District Court, New York, Northern District - Hon. Frederick J. Scullin, Jr.