Pat Regan is an associate in Proskauer's Litigation Department and a member of the Health Care Group. He focuses on representing clients in complex litigation, government investigations and regulatory matters within the health care industry. Pat has handled cases involving the False Claims Act, the Anti-Kickback Statute, Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act, Medicare Advantage, Medicaid, ERISA, "qui tam" whistleblower lawsuits and payor-provider contract disputes. He has litigated at all levels of the federal court system and in arbitrations.

Pat served as a judicial law clerk for Chief Judge Philip S. Gutierrez of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California and Judge Sandra S. Ikuta of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. While in law school, he served as an articles editor for the California Law Review and as the student co-director for Berkeley Law's first-year written and oral advocacy program.
