Rachel Harris is a partner in Proskauer's Private Client Services Department.

Rachel represents ultra-high-net worth individuals and families in connection with all aspects of estate planning, estate and trust administration and charitable giving. Her practice also focuses on domestic and international estate planning for individuals and families, including pre-immigration planning prior to arrival in the U.S. and planning for U.S. citizens residing outside of the U.S. She also has a wealth of experience resolving complex technical matters that involve more than one jurisdiction, including tax, succession and probate.

Based in the Firm's Los Angeles office, Rachel has extensive experience with California-specific issues such as California income tax and California estate and trust administration.
