Reut is an associate in the Litigation Department and a member of the Antitrust, Asset Management Litigation, and White Collar Defense & Investigations groups. Her practice focuses on complex commercial disputes, internal investigations, and government enforcement actions across a range of industries, including technology, asset management, pharmaceutical, healthcare, consumer and agricultural products, and sports.

Reut also maintains an active and diverse pro bono practice, where she has handled voting rights and criminal justice reform matters.

Reut is a member of the firm's Antitrust Technology Task Force and a frequent contributor to Proskauer's Minding Your Business blog.

Reut undertook a five-month secondment while at the Firm, where she worked for the City of New York in the Torts Division, Special Litigation Unit.

Reut earned her J.D. from New York University School of Law and her B.S. from Cornell University. During law school, she worked at the US Attorney's Office, Criminal Division in the Southern District of New York, as well as at the Manhattan District Attorney's Office. Reut served as an Articles Editor for the Journal of Legislation and Public Policy.
