Robb Tretter is a partner in Proskauer's Mergers & Acquisitions Group. Robb advises private investment firms, corporations and financial institutions on a broad range of corporate matters, including mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, financing arrangements, securities law compliance, corporate governance and general corporate matters. He has extensive experience assisting clients through private and public takeovers, restructurings, reorganizations, and special situations, both in the U.S. and internationally.

Robb regularly advises clients on private capital deployment, especially in preferred equity investments (including into fund structures), as well as asset and stock purchases and sales, often in the context of leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations and restructurings. His clients span diverse industries, including airlines, technology, healthcare, manufacturing, leisure, chemicals and financial services.

Since 2017, Robb has served as an adjunct professor at New York University School of Law, where he teaches a course on special situations.
