Sabrina Schloss is an associate in the Private Client Services Department. She assists individuals and families with various aspects of estate, gift and wealth-transfer planning. Sabrina is committed to providing tailored, tax-efficient solutions to her clients, ensuring their legacies reflect their values and multigenerational wealth is preserved. Clients appreciate her empathetic approach, collaborative style and swift turnaround.

Before practicing law, Sabrina spent a decade as a SAG-AFTRA actor, originating the role of Young Anna in Disney's Frozen: Live at the Hyperion and appearing in critically acclaimed comedies such as the Oscar-nominated film Lady Bird and FX's Better Things. Her experience gives her a unique understanding of residuals, rights of publicity and other issues faced by entertainers and content creators.
