Sonia Lamba is a Private Credit associate and member of the Global Finance practice and Private Capital Team.

Sonia's practice centers on leveraged and acquisition finance however she also assists on real estate finance deals. Sonia represents a variety of clients, with a particular focus on alternative lenders and private credit funds. She also works with private equity sponsors and large borrower corporations.

Sonia has guided clients in an array of transactions and financing structures in the middle and upper markets, such as national and international corporate acquisitions and refinancings, restructurings, management buyouts and buy-ins, unitranche, first out/last out and senior/super senior structures. Her experience encompasses other investment products relevant to the private credit market, including lender co-investments, note purchases and bond issuances (including subject of foreign law).

Notably, Sonia has undertaken a client secondment at one of the largest trans-Atlantic credit fund managers. Working directly with the deal origination teams, Sonia has gained valuable insight into key commercial negotiation points on transactions.
