

Contact

Stewart Ross

Partner

SRoss@proskauer.com

Stewart Ross is a partner in Proskauer's Corporate and Fund Finance group. He advises private investment fund managers and other market participants on financing arrangements throughout the fund lifecycle, from subscription lines and capital call facilities to NAV and hybrid facilities, continuation vehicle financings, management company and general partner financings, GP stakes-related transactions and topco financings. His experience also encompasses rated note issuances, feeder-level financings, warehouse facilities and professional loan programs.

Stew also has broader experience representing borrowers and lenders in a wide range of transactions, including acquisition, corporate, debtor-in-possession, infrastructure project and real estate financings, as well as notes offerings and other complex credit matters.

Practices

Borrower Finance, Fund Finance, Global Finance

Industries

Private Equity, Private Capital, Financial Services

Education

Fordham University School of Law, J.D.

cum laude

Dean’s Scholarship, Fordham Law School Prize, International Law Journal

Charles University, Masters of Social Sciences, International Relations

McGill University, B.A.

Admissions & Qualifications

New York