Vinay Kohli is a highly regarded healthcare industry lawyer renowned for his dedication and expertise in navigating complex regulatory landscapes. He advises a wide range of healthcare providers and investors, offering strategic counsel on compliance, operations, reimbursement and regulatory matters.

A seasoned trial lawyer and regulatory specialist, Vinay is adept in handling high-stakes healthcare disputes, including for jury trials, bench trials, and arbitrations. His litigation expertise and deep industry knowledge enable him to aggressively challenge large national payors in managed care disputes, defend against healthcare fraud and abuse claims, and lead strategic responses to government investigations.

Trusted by hospital systems, physician practices, post-acute providers, healthcare technology firms and revenue cycle management vendors, Vinay is the go-to lead trial counsel for complex commercial disputes. His proven track record in breach of contract, trade secret misappropriation, unfair business practices and fiduciary duty litigation underscores his results-driven advocacy in cases with significant financial and operational impact.

Prior to joining Proskauer, Vinay was a partner in the Healthcare group at King & Spalding.
