

Alice Dawson-Loynes, Manager of Training & Development, Private Credit

London +44-20-7280-2110

adawson-loynes@proskauer.com

Alice Dawson-Loynes

Manager of Training & Development, Private Credit

Alice Dawson-Loynes is a senior knowledge lawyer and practice manager in the Corporate Department, who manages training and development for the Private Credit Group in London.

Alice has over 15 years of experience specialising in leveraged finance, investment grade syndicated lending and general corporate lending. Prior to joining Proskauer, she was a senior knowledge lawyer in the leveraged finance practice of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer. Alice trained at Clifford Chance and practiced as a finance lawyer in their London, Dubai and Hong Kong offices, as well as undertaking two bank secondments. She also worked as a senior associate in the finance team at Ropes & Gray in London.

Related Services

Private Credit

Private Credit Restructuring

Finance

Education

Leeds University, BSc (Hons)

Nottingham Law School, PgDL

Nottingham Law School, LPC

Admissions & Qualifications

Admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales