

Dan Klima

Lazard

---

Managing Director

Dan Klima is a Managing Director in the Lazard New York office where he is a member of Private Capital Advisory (“PCA”). The Lazard PCA secondary advisory team both advises limited partners on liquidity solutions and portfolio management of commitments to alternative investments and advises GPs across the entire spectrum of secondary transaction alternatives, including single and multi-asset GP-led continuation vehicles, strip sales, tender offers, and other structured alternatives. Prior to joining Lazard PCA, Dan served most recently as a Principal at Lexington Partners. Over the course of his 14-year tenure, Dan was primarily tasked with the sourcing, evaluation, execution, and monitoring of secondary transactions. Dan began his career in 2004 as an investment banking analyst in the New York office of Credit Suisse First Boston. Dan graduated from Georgetown University, McDonough School of Business with a BSBA in Finance and International Business and minor in Economics, summa cum laude.
