

Taylor Robinson

Lexington Partners

---

Partner

Taylor Robinson is a Partner at Lexington Partners primarily focused on sourcing, negotiating and executing secondary transactions. Taylor joined Lexington Partners in 2008 from JPMorgan, where he was in investment banking and leveraged finance. He is a member of Lexington's ESG steering committee and Franklin Templeton's Stewardship & Sustainability Council. Aside from deal execution, Taylor is responsible for the syndication of secondary transactions at Lexington. Taylor holds a joint BA from Trinity College in Public Policy & Law and Economics. Outside of work, Taylor is a Trustee of The Green Vale School and a former President of the board of the St. Anthony Trust of Hartford.